

IFJ PAN Particle Physics Summer Student Programme 2019

In order to apply for the participation in the programme you have to:

- be a student of a second (or higher) year of physics or related field,
- have a good knowledge of English,
- bring a notebook (laptop) that will be used for classes and project-related work,
- have at least a basic programming skills in C++ or another modern high-level language (please be aware that classes during the first week will be done in C++).

Once you are accepted, you will be required to have an accident insurance¹, for the period of the programme duration.

¹ In Polish: ubezpieczenie NNW (od Następstw Nieszczęśliwych Wypadków).